A Dose of Adrenaline

By Elizabeth Bair

Sure, the life of a real CIA agent is probably filled with more paperwork than espionage, but we're still convinced it's the most badass government job you could have. Jeff Abbott would probably agree with us. His thrilling novel, Adrenaline, is about a CIA agent whose definitely no pencil pusher. Protagonist Sam Capra is on the hunt to find his kidnapped wife and unravel the mystery behind a fatal explosion that the CIA has pinned on him. Now Abbott's coming to Barnes & Noble Lincoln Center, 7700 W. NW Hwy, tonight at 7 p.m. to discuss and sign Adrenaline. Call 214-739-1124 or visit barnesandnoble.com for more information.
